DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING

AT

VERSAILLES, KENTUCKY,

ON THURSDAY, NOV. 1st, 1860.

The Democracy of Woodford e may will have agrand meeting at Mrs. Yaoen's Woods, near Versailles, where speeches will be made by

Hou. Bi mfurey Marshall, Judge J. W. Moone, and other distinguished orators.

Meeting of Merchants.

The meeting of merchants called to arrange orthereception of the Philadelphia Board of Trade was held at the counting-room of Garvin, Bill & Co., yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Garvin, James Trabue was re the public, and the interest it excites, and he euthusiastic applause it nightly clicits are the best evidences of its Intrinsic merits, as he most astounding, wonderful, and life-like combination of science, gentus and mechanism ever conce ved. The representations of thou sands of soldiers on the march, the engagement, the battle, the retreat, the victory of the besleging army, the field of buttle after the en-agrinent, the wounded, the dying, all combin o make this a most thrilling and startling exibition. We have never esen an entertain-ention of the audicues. The enthusiastic and equent applause of the audience at each exhibition is proof positive of their approval. The isual representation will take place to-night.

MOZART SOCIETY CONCERT.-The musica

public of Louisville will be gratified at the au-heir first rehearsal of the season in public to ight. The large hall of Masonie Temple will on this occasion undoubtediv be filled with the eauty and fashion of the city. The concert-of the Mozart Society have ever proved most greeable, and as it embraces much of the ama-ur musical talent of Louisville, It eminently serves the patronage of our citizeus. The rice of admission is fixed at fiftycents. Tickets

A RIDICULOUS AND DISCUSTING AFFAIR.-The Philadelphia correspondent of the Baltimere Sun thus speaks of the Republican jubilee in that city on the 20d:

that city on the 20d:

The Republicans yesterday celebrated their success in this State by a barbecue at Girard Park, where a large of was strong upon a pole, and roasted overa large fire—while a large quantity of pointies were cooked in the ashes.—The whole of air is represented to have been exceedingly rideculous, if not disgusting. Those present were supplied with long bitcher Entres by means of which they were enabled to carve the builtook to their own satisfaction and the infinite anuscinent of the bystanders. Certain portions of the animal, which were pronounced useful done, appeared to be relished heartify, while many wry faces were made in the mastication of raw bits, which had apparently only smelt the fire. Hundreds of boys might have been seen running wildly about with great spareribe and bits of shock in their hands, dripping ibs and bits of shauk in their hands, dripping with grease.

A SINGLE POUND OF COTTON.—The London "Quarterly Review," in an article mon corton spinning machines and their invarious, thus illustrates the productiveness of brain and kaml by showing what machinery new enables the cotton-spinners do with a pend of cotton: A manufacturer of Manchester experts what is easiled No. 240 yarn in large quantities for the use of the linest foreign must in manufacturers. Of the lineness of this linead some idea may be formed when we wint that two fundred and forty lanks, reshe eight hunored and fifty yerds in length, are spain from a single pound weight of cotton, or a total length of one hundred and fourteen nailes! But this does not by my means exhans the capabilities of English nearlines; for at the great exhibition of 15d specimers of yarn spenial Boston wire exhibited so fine as No. 700, or equal to three hundred and thirty-hour miles in length spain from one pound of material! THE BASIS OF MR. BELL'S PARTY. THE BASIS OF ME. BELL'S PARTY.

On the 10th of May, 1899, a political Convention, which had had her in Baltimore to bound a new pointiest party, nominated John Bell for President, upon the following basis:

"Resolved, That it is both the part of partionism and of duty to recognize no political principles, other than

"The Union of the States, and

"The Enforcement of the Country,

"The Curion of the States, and

"The Enforcement of the Laws."

Mil. BELL APPROVES IT.

On the 231 of July, 1899, Mr. Bell, in reply to a letter of Mr. Watts, of Ausbama, asking his of inion of certain public questions, declined to answer, and said:

"Itself became member of the Conventor, I would have reserved the a toption of any lattern or other due arction of 4 rinciples not embraced or implied in the turce fondamental propositions or objects intended to be maintained or secured by the National Union party, and which continue the basis of it organization."

The first thing that strikes us in that record, is the fact that in the various disputes which have arisen in Congress upon the slavery question, and when the friends of the country, North and South, have labored to effect thororable settlements and thus secure tranquility in the people and safety to the Union, Mr. Bell has proved very impracticable, and has very often been feand voting against his nawn people and the Northern national near, and in company with the Abolltionists. Now for the proof.

ABBULTION PETITIONS.

In 1835, the systematic agitation of the slarery question commenced at the Ninth, and Abolt ton petitions were poured in upon Congress.—
The next year, resolutions designed to put a stop to thus, by declaring the opinion of Congress, were offered by Mr. Pinchney, of S. C. from a committee appeinted to consider the subject. Mr. Best visted with Adams and Slade to keep off the vote, and then failed to vote except on one resolution.

At the next session (1830-7), Mr. Bell voted with Adams and Slade against the ractions in size and the rules to permit the adoption of Mr. Davis' resolutions to lay all Aboltion petitiens on the salde, without debate or reading.

Mr. Reucher, another mean ber from North Carolina, seized the apportunit speech, if possible. Mr. Reacher, another member from North Carolina, seized the appartunity thus offered of getting the floor and moved an appartunity. The soutest had been bitter and violent but the last decree, and the flouse was least tempost. The South and the conservative men of the North voted for the adjournment, white Slade and his backers opposed 4. The list of new was headed by John Quncy Adams, and numbered only 185, among whom was included the whole Abolition strength in the liber. Three Southern men only noted segment adjourning, so as to enable Slade to continue his speech, and one of them was JOHN BELL, of Tennessee. THE PARTLATION OF LONDON.—A public meeting was recently held in London to promote the laterests of the London City Missions. As evidence of the missellaneous character of the city population and of the need of increased missionary chorn, it was stated by one of the speakers that more than helf the adult population of hondon were born in the province. There were also there no less than 60,000 Germack, 30,000 Franch, and 6,000 Iralians, a very large number of Asiatica fron-all parts of the East, and many who will wor-ship their idols. The West India and North and South America are also largely repre-sented. A None Parkor Horses.—Mr. Russell Wood, of Holyoke, Massachusetts, had a very narrow and uninaculous escape from death lass Thresday. While coming down a monetain with a load of wood, he felf oil, and was so paralyzed as to be unable to move, and was obliged to remain under the wagon wheels from 30 elsek in the aftermont till 11 in the evening, when he was found and rescued by his abranced and secretaing family. His horses had stood still for eight hours, although so impatient to be gone that they had pawed acep notes in the ground beneath them. If they had moved, Mr. Wood must have been killed.

From Hayri.—Intelligence from Hayri to the Gillist, has been received. James Redpath, a rosed Aboliticulet of the revolutionary school, and a biographic of John Brown, had received a popular ovation at Pertan-Prince on the 27th of September, the occasion being his departure to the United States. Speeches of the most ultra character were delivered, and toasts were drank to the honer of Traddon Hyatt, Victor Ringo, M. de Lamartine, and the memory of John Brown. After the banguet, Mr. Redpath was accompanied to the vessel by a torch-light procession, amid great enthusiasin. CERSUS OF VERMONT. -Sufficient returns of the integeness lave been reserved to show that this population of Vermont has decreased since the ceneus of 1850. In four counties the bases amount to 4,413, and in two other counties the gades are 3,250, showing a real loss of about a thousand. The total loss of the State, it is thought, may be four or five thousand. This is, we believe, the first instance in the history of the country where the population of a State has receded in the course of ten years.

choses. Three southern men only voted against adjourning, so as to enable Slade locontione his speech, and one of the worst features of that speech, and one of the worst features of that unhappy day's work—the only enect of keet ing tha House's gether being to insertace irritation and to hashiply the chances for an outbreak. From the beginning Southern members had been in layor of it, and essayed to accountiel which Mr. Slade kept possession of the floor; and now, at last, when it was time to adjourn any way—when the House was in a condition in which up good could be expected, and great harm high the apprehended, there were slaty-three members, being many's enectified of the House, willing to conditue it in session."

In order to avoid these scenes, on the new day a resolution was offered by Mr. Paston, or Virginia, in behalf of a Southern cancus, that all abolition peritions abouth he laid on the table without being debried, printed, read, or referred. On ordering the leads question then recurring on the passage of the resolution, Mr. Bell voted in the negative, with Adams. Stade at Co. SLAVERY IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Senate, September 14, 1850, Mr. Bell declared as follows:

"With regard to the Constitutional power of Congress over his subject, I would say that the only doubt I have of the existence of the power either to suppress the slave trade, or to abolish slavery in the District, Is inspired by the respect for the eminent men, both in and out of Congress, who bold that Congress has no such hower. we would be speedily enlightened upon the question whether the North would stop there first—to pareline peace by survendering, the point of associal, and second, to try a costly experiment on Abdillion fortogramee at the expense of the citizens of the District and of the States of Mazyband and Virginia.

What other Southern man would pay for such a peace the price of such a submission? What other Southern man, in order to try an experiment, the reselt of which a child could foretell, would establish an Aboilition sanctuary and point whence the Aboilition assaults might be made, in the hearts of the nuch abused and defrauded States of Waryland and Virginia? What other man, North or South, would have thought the experiment worth trying?

Is this states manship? Then John Bell is onr only statesman. Is this fidelity to the South? Then the South has moother loyal son. Is this kind and just to Virginia and Maryland? Then Virginia and Maryland have no other friends. Is this wise policy? Then philosophy scaches in valid the spirit of eneroschment cannot be an added by a shrinking submission—that the spirit of repactly is not table extinguished by the profer of counties. Washington, Oct. 24, 1860.

There is a great deal of excitentual here, among gentlemen of the very highest social position from the South and the Southwest, at the prospect of Lincoln selection. Even the Southern ladges pariake of the general temper of the times. There is no use attempting to misrepresent or disguise the violent and determined tone of opinion and freding in that region. The public press of the Carelinas and of the Gulf States rather underrates, certainly understates, instead of exaggerating, both the accretive of emotion and the resolute purpose of the people. We are on the even revolution. Men and women and children there, have the very same leeings towards Republicans which our ancestors and their families, young and old, entertained when they three off the dominion of a distant 2 mm Government in 1770.

From the capital we have but a repetition of the news we have for months past bad to record—the almost total suspension of luaine; calling in of the neighboring genrisons in test upon the rich, and anxiture of the people—all of which has uch a state of anarchy and confinsion we can well believe to be true. It is also stated that the troops were being called in from the city of Proble, which was to be abandoned to the Constitutionalists.

In the meantime it is stated that General Degolado had been detected in introduce with the Miramon Governs ent for an assical le arrangment between the two parties, and for this be had been ordered to Vera Cruz for trial. The British Minister, Mr. Mathews, is supposed to be at the bottom of it.

FOR PRESIDENT. JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, Of Kentucky.

The Day is at Haud.

Fellow-cirizens of Kentucky, the day is ever now at hand when upon your decision and your action we in all candor believe the fate of our l cloved country depends. We are no alarmist and have not appealed to the fears of our coun trymen, nor endeavored to excite their approhensious of the result. We have rather at tempted, by candid arguments and earnest rea s using, addressed to their good sense and hou-est impulses, to convince them that duty and interest and honor alike require them to rally around the flag of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE, and fight for the Constitution and the Equality of the States. We have done whatever we could do, to promote the interests of the only candidate who has the slighest possible chance of defeating Lincoln-we have done all w could do to expose the purposes and almound plans of the sectionalists of the North-we have endeavored to convince our people tha the only hope for the South, the only means by which success may be won, or the worst c nec quences of defeat averted, is in presenting a united front to the aggressions of the North With a common interest with our fellow-cit zons of all parties in the maintenance of the Constitution and the preservation of the Union we would be untrue to ourselves and false to the obligations imposed upon us by our position as public journal. sis, were we to do aught or ear anght calculated or intended to deceive or mis-lead the great public in this crisis in our affairs: and as the struggle draws to a close, we can sincerely say, and safely a; peal to our readers for the truth of the assertion, that, amid all the excitem at and irritation natural to such a canvass, we have not made a single statement we did not believe to be true; that we have resorted to n ne of the arte of the demagogue to arouse the passions and stir up the bad feelings of the pec ple, that, despite the I rovocatious we have me. we have relied solely and only on the strength of our position, on the justice of our cause, and on the intelligence and virtue of the people; and we indu e the pleasing reflection, that, be the result of the contest as it may, no one wil have cause to reproach as for any thing we have said or to complain of any thing we have done. And, now, is view of the momentous interest at stake, and of the terrible crisis that is upon us in the spirit which has governed us so far, we make one more caudid and earnest appeal to the patri tiem and loyalty of the people of our notive State, where all our affections are entwined where our leved ones sleep the sleep that know no waking, where are all our hopes, and aspir lived and loved, and hove to die and be buried We tel the , w at the greatest and best and wisest of all parties and all sectious admit, the dangurah al. Should Lincoln be elec ed, it is believed by many that a dissolution he Union is inevitable-that the glorious Con fed racy of which we have been so proud wil bebroken up-that the Heaven-luspired Cousti tution, under which we have lived as one people and grown, and pr spered, will be tram; ied up der foot-that, in the language of the Dougla State organ in Indiana, the South must choose a final d. sruption of the ties that bind them to their sister States of the North and a dishonoraule submis ion. This is a terrible alternative. It should be av rted if possible. Can this be done? It is doubtful, we fear; but there is hope while there is life, and firmness and courage on the part o the friends of the Union may yet save the conn iry. It is barely possible that Lincoln may be defeated—that BRECKINGIDGE may be elected by the people. It is confidently believed that California and Oregon will go for the Nationa candidates; it is strongly hoped that New Jer sey will declare for the Union; and New York or Pennsylvania can drive back the enciny and preserve our institutions from the touch of the stroyer. All hopes of Lincoln's defeat are centered in one of these States, and many i whose judgment we have some confidence be 1. oc that one or both will go against Black Re sublicanism. But the South must be a unitte make either one of these available to save u and at last it comes back for us, people of Ken tacky, to determine where we will stand-for us to say whether our last and almost our only hore shall be t ken from us.

If we carry New York or Peunsylvaniangalus LINCOLN, the vote of Kentucky may be suffi-cient to clost Bazekinkings in the cicetora, college, and sceure the triumph of the I rinel plato which nil parties were committed las year in the Gubernatorial canvass, and by which we are sure all yet mean to mide. If this State however, should solitary and slone cast he vote for John BELL, of Tonnessee, the choitaight be thrown into the House of Represent: tives, where Lincoln would lack but one singl vote of an election, and where the enceces o either BRECKINGIDGE OF BELL would be almo Impossi le, while the Black Republicans, b bribery and corrultion, by the arts of intrigu and management, would more than probabl accomplish their purposes-accomplish the I irposes by means that would forbid the ide: ion to their rule, and make dissolu tions fixed fact. If we would defeat Lixcon it must be done before the people; and if w would preserve the Union, we must defeat

We believe, fellow-citizens, that of the slaveholding States, but two are doubtful. We have no shadow of donbi that all save Kentucky and Sissourl are certain for BRECKINEIDGE and Lavr. We beli-ve California and Oregon will stand by the Constitution and the Union and vote for BRECHINRIDGE and LANE. We believe if the people of Kentucky really desire to bear I isk the Black Republican hordes now hovering an their borders, they can only do it by voting ier BRECKINRIDGE and LANE!

Douglas never had strength enough to get an leas labored in the interest of Mr. Lincoln, to use friends two years ago he pledged his aid in this bettle. He is now in the clave States, hoping only to make the defeat of BRECKINKIDGE and Lane sure by means of divisions in the ranks of their friends. We are confident he will fall in his miss n of hate and revenge. JOHN BELL has been repudiated by the people of l., s own State, who turned him out of the Senat to put in his stead one in whom they have more ontidence and who will more faithfully represen them and their inter ste in the councils of the uation. They will not support him now. They will vote for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. It is so in Virginia, in Maryland, and in Louisiana, where some of the more sanguine of the Union party men have had hopes of success. They are all sure to go for BEECKINGIDGE and LANE.

What, now, will this State do? Fellow-citlzens of Kentucky, upon you rests such a respousibility as you have never before been called on to meet. Upon your action may depend the result of the election next Tuesday.— Upon your votes may be staked the hopes of a nation. Your patriotlam and loyalty are subjected to a terrible test. Will you suffer your vision to be so obscured by the mists of party pride and party prejudice that you cannot see the great national interests to be affected by Treason in the Pot. The Journal has found a maic's uest, and has one into cestaries over it. Nothing could we made it happier-nothing would have been after day, and week after week, from the me ment Breckingings was nombiated, that thos who stand by the Constitution and maintain their rights under it, are engaged in a Lorrid plot to destroy the Union! And has it not daved on this harp of a thousand strings nuti to own partisans grew askamed of its music!-Has it not been conscious that its teachings by one man in the United States! And, now, hould it not be rejoised that something has turned up just in the nick of time to help it ont! True, we suppose the whole thing has been fixed up for some time, only awaiting the ere of the election to see the light; but the or gan should be happy, and it is happy, sublim v. rediculously, absurdly happy, because it was so written in the programme !

And now, what is it happy about, and why is it happy, and what does it all mean? Listen! Yesterday morning it introduced with an editorial flourish and an editorial indorsement, a let ter from Washington City to a New York paper headed in hold capitals and black letter-"The Disunion Plot-Schemes of the Disunionists-Their Programme of Operations-Disclosures of a Federal Office Holder," &c., &c. Enough, in good faith, to make one's hair stand on end! And with such proof of all it has charged, certainly the Journal would be ex-pected to get high! Just think of it! The disnion plot is not only on foot, but a high Fed eral official Las been indistree; enough, or fait less enough, to disclose it, and to disclose it ins n the right time and to the right person and it the right place for Know Nothings to use it. With this statement, the thing might pass rithout further notice, leaving the paper whileh has introduced this stuff to the intelligent people of Kentucky to bear up as best it may under the weight of the contempt It has tairly carned. A word more, however, will show the people of all parties yet more clearly the character of the coutest now being waged by the Opposition leaders in this State.

tter, head lines and all, is from the New York Times, an abolition paper, for which it was manufactured to benefit Lincoln; and to make the infamy of this attempt to deceive an hones! cople to their ruin the more complete, it is on y necessary to add that it was written, accordug to the Journal, by Mr. R.J. LACKEY, who was evently disch eged from one of the Departments of Washington! Mr. LACKET is the son-in-law of ex-Gov. King of Misseuri, whose betrayal of his constituents at Charleston secured for him the scorn and contempt of every honest man in the State he in part represented. And Mr. LACKEY, a discharged clerk, vents his wrath on the adninistration by manufacturing the most infa mous lies for publication in a negroite newspa-per, and these "roorbacks" are indorsed and used by papers and men occupying a respecta ble position in Kentucky politics! The people will administer the proper rebake next Tues-

The Cincinnati Enquirer stated upon the authority of one it vouched for as "a gentleman of veracity," that JESSE D. BRIGHT voted for the Black Re, ublican State ticket at the recent election. We denied it, upon authority at least as good as the Enquirer's, and raised for the name of the "gentleman of veracity." The Eu quirer said it would give the name at the proper time. When Mr. Bugur returned home his a tantion was called to she statement in the En mirer, and he at once published a card atioms any one who says he voted for LARB of any Black Republican candidate, as a "liar and slanderer." Isn't this a proper time to have the name of the "gentleman of veracity" upon whose authority the Cincinnati Douglas organ made the positive statement that Mr. BRIGHT voted the full Black Republican State ticket, with one execution! Or was the lie coined in the brain of some one of the unprincipled polis Certain it is, a villaluous lichas been printequirer vouched for its authority, for the gentle man of veracity, it must be held responsible for

The Democrat says that the Kentucky egation to Charleston voted Efty-seven times for GUTHRIE on the platform on which Dote LAS now stands, and therefore and thereby and thus indersed it. This is not the fact. The plat form was not finally disposed of during the thac Mr. Gi Thine's name was before the Convention. A series of resolutions had been prelously adopted, it is true; but the Teanessee resolution hal been offered as an addition to those already passed, and was laid over unall after the nomination should be made under the rules of the Convention. No body in the Couvention understood the platform was eiged; and the Doughsiles, by a unanimous vote, after-wards-after the withdrawal of the Kentucky delegates-passed the Wickliffe resolution which, if it means anything at all, is one of the most important in their platform. Dot GLAS' clegates were voting for Mr. GUTHRIE-it wa of completed and tiually disposed of until afterwards-and the Democrat knows that such is

The Executive Committee of the Opposition, if we remember aright, canvassed the State in 1856, and just before the closion they subiished the result of their calculations for the benefit of their friends in the State. They have douc so again; and the Journal yesterday published the vele by counties, as they have arronged it, in nearly half the State! All we have to say is, to take every bet that is offered on the Journal's figures, in any of the districts giver, for either BELL or Dot GLAS. There is not one Con gressional District in the State in which Dorg As will get more votes than Brackinghous and there is not one of those named in which BELL's majority will be as large as claimed, or BRECKINKIDGE's as small as conceded. Our opportunities for acquiring information are quit as good as those of the Journal, and our candid piulou is, that if our friends throughout the tate do their duty until the election, or they have done it during the past formight, BRECK-

INRIDGE will carry Kentucky. Mr. Bell's Record.

Elsewhere we publish, from a recent number of the Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, the first chapters of a review of the record of John Bell, to which we invite the special attention of the people of Kentucky. To-morrow, or next day, we will complete it. The substance of these chapters has been given to the public long since, in a different form; but some of the more prominent acts in the public life of Mr. BELL re bere so arranged that they may be comprehended at a glance, and we are sure our people of all parties are not indesposed to examin closely a record to which they have been referred Csale by for a knowledge of the antecedents and present position of a gentleman for whom they are now asked to vote.

It is said, we know not with what Iruth that HANNIBAL HAMLIN, Black Republican candidate for Vice President, is part negro. That such is the case is believed by many who have en Mr. Hamlin and know him. The Richmond (Ky.) Messenger, a BELL and EVERETT organ, defends him, praising him extravagant ly, though differing from him in politice. same number of the paper is full of attacks of the most scurrllous character on a Southern gentleman who has visited our State to speak for the Constitution and the Union.

The Indianapolis Sentinel having aided in eficulating the infamous lie that Mr. Bright Officer State ticket, and unable to prove it against the somewhat emphatic denial of the indignant Senator, seeks to shill-l-l itself from the contempt of honest men of all parties behind petty quibbles worthy only of i elf. The brand is on the brow of all who said
